Welcome to the Benefits of APTi MEMBERSHIP!

Receive the Bulletin of Psychological Type; the Journal of Psychological Type; & Typelines

You can read articles on the latest type applications by the best type practitioners in the Bulletin of Psychological Type (BPT), mailed quarterly. You will also receive electronically the Journal of Psychological Type (JPT) with articles on the latest type research. You are welcome to contribute your own articles for publication to Gayle Veltman, the Editor of the Bulletin, and to Tom Carskadon, the Editor of the Journal. Typelines is a bimonthly electronic newsletter that brings you news of the type events of chapters and regions all over the country and worldwide. Members may submit events to the calendar.

Advertise to Potential Clients

APT members can join our members-only, online advertising network free of charge. The Referral Network allows potential clients to search for your services by location and type of service offered.

Get Access to Virtual Membership in APT's e-Chapter

Members of our e-Chapter can meet each other online in this virtual chapter. As with regional chapter membership, there is a fee for joining the APT eChapter, which gives you access to the regular teleconference programs. Only members of APT may join the eChapter, at the modest cost of $25.

Get Credit Card Processing For Your Clients

Credit card processing and eCommerce services are available for your business through Practice Pay Solutions (PPS). PPS has agreed to reduce the $49 set up fee to $25 for APT members in the U.S. and Canada, making credit card processing affordable for solo practitioners
